UM DAYS AIMED AT HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS AND THEIR PARENTS

MISSOULA --

High school juniors and seniors and their parents can learn more about the University of Montana and choosing a college during UM Days, set for Saturday, Nov. 10.

The free program, which will feature a variety of workshops, will begin with breakfast and a slide show at 8 a.m. in the Urey Lecture Hall. Workshop topics will include financial aid, campus activities and what parents need to know about planning for college. Representatives of the College of Arts and Sciences and all the professional schools will discuss career opportunities.

Displays, entertainment and campus and dormitory tours will also be part of the program. Participants will have plenty of time to talk to current UM students as well as faculty members and administrators.

High school students taking part in UM Days will be admitted free to the football game between UM and the University of Idaho, which will begin at noon in Washington-Grizzly Stadium. Their parents and other family members can buy tickets at the reduced rate of $2.50 a person.

Participants should register by Friday, Nov. 2. Registration forms are available at high school counseling offices and UM New
